

I am a subscriber to satellite radio. I do not believe that this fact should deny me of the right to have local traffic and weather reports. The reports I receive are more detailed and helpful than those on my local radio stations. I use this very important feature in my daily commute to work and do not want that taken away.